BIBLICAL PROSPERITY

Biblical prosperity is more than the accumulation of wealth; it is a holistic expression of God's blessing in a person's life, encompassing spiritual, emotional, physical, and financial well-being. At its core, prosperity begins with a relationship with God.

In Joshua 1:8, God links prosperity to obedience and meditation on His Word, showing that success flows from spiritual alignment rather than worldly gain. Prosperity in the Bible includes provision, not excess. As Philippians 4:19 declares, God supplies all our needs—not for selfish indulgence, but so we can live purposefully and generously. This idea is reinforced in 3 John 1:2, which reveals that God desires us to prosper and be in good health even as our soul prospers. In other words, true prosperity starts from within, reflecting a life grounded in truth and spiritual health. Furthermore, prosperity is not just for personal benefit; it carries kingdom purpose. Deuteronomy 8:18 reminds us that God gives us the power to gain wealth to establish His covenant on the earth. Ultimately, biblical prosperity is about pursuing God, not riches. As we walk in faith, obedience, and generosity, He provides for our needs, multiplies our impact, and brings peace, purpose, and fulfillment to every area of our lives.

Please Help Me!

There are times when we feel we are at the end of our rope without having another rope to hold on to! I've been in this place before. During those disparaging times, I call on the HOLY SPIRIT. He is the 3rd person of the Trinity, alongside God the Father, and God the Son (Jesus).

He is understood to be "God's active" and personal presence in the world. He won't do anything until you invite Him in your life. He desires to live in every believer. The Holy Spirit (Spirit of God) desires to take up residence in us, and when we INVITE Him in, that's when our new life begins! He...empowers the believer, guides the believer, teaches the believer, and helps to transform the believer to become more like Jesus! Give Him an invitation today! Don't wait another minute.

Journeying TOGETHER

— Marriage is sacred to God. The vows we take before God and man should be sacred to us as well. One of the vows in the marriage ritual says, “For better or worse.” Do we give each other space in the relationship to grow and be ourselves. This promise carries weight as it outlines the depth of devotion and resilience needed to nurture a relationship through life’s unpredictable tides. Love is giving and sharing of ourselves. Marriage is a union blessed by God, a union that becomes a source of strength and joy when aligned with the Creator’s authority.

— Under God’s authority, fulfilling marriage vows becomes a more graceful journey. With His blessings, patience grows, forgiveness flows, and understanding deepens. Faith not only strengthens the bond between spouses but also brings clarity to the purpose of the union: to love as Christ loves, to serve one another, and reflect God’s glory through the partnership. Marriage doesn’t exist in a vacuum—it flourishes within the context of community. Friends, family and faith communities play a vital role in supporting couples through the journey. For better or worse, are we there yet? What do you think?
